Three Feathers: The Movie on DVD

The award-winning Three Feathers: The Movie follows the life journey of three young Indigenous men: Flinch, Bryce and Rupert.

Following its successful run on the festival circuit, which included viewings across Canada and around the world, Three Feathers: The Movie demonstrates the power of traditional restorative justice.

Based on the graphic novel of the same name by Richard Van Camp and filmed in Fort Smith, NT, Three Feathers: The Movie was written and directed by Carla Ulrich, and produced by Brent Kaulback, Richard Van Camp, Liz Levine and Ann Lepine. The film is distributed by the South Slave Divisional Education Council.

English language.
